

ROY G BIV Gallery for Emerging Artists is currently looking for artists to exhibit in a statewide juried exhibition focusing on the best photographic and video arts in Ohio. Only photographs and video based work will be accepted for consideration. Entries are limited to artists residing in the state of Ohio.

Video Artist Michael Stickrod will select the artists for ImageOHIO 10 whose works will be exhibited from January through February at the Shot Tower Gallery on the campus of Fort Hayes as a satellite exhibition of ROY G BIV Gallery in Columbus, Ohio.

About the juror:

Inspired by the Free Cinema movement, Michael Stickrod creates films that compose an ever-expanding family album. Stickrod layers footage of his relatives with homemade soundtracks, found audio, and photographed and scanned objects to make videos that paint an unsettling portrait of Middle America. Stickrod's films are suspended somewhere between confessional home videos and anthropological field research. Stickrod was born in 1978 in Columbus, Ohio, and currently lives and works between Ohio and Brooklyn NY. He received a BFA from the Ohio State University in 2003 and an MFA from Yale University in 2005. Stickrod's work has been exhibited internationally.

All entries must be received by:
October 3, 2009.
